Colonel Carl Young left this week for Reno and San Francisco by auto. The colonel goes to attend to water rights interest he has in California. He expects to be gone about two weeks.

William Beeler accompanied Colonel Young. Mr. Beeler has recently completed an examination of the Silverph Extension property, and as a result has gone east to Chicago to finance that promising property, which joins the Silverph Consolidated, where, it is said, one of the greatest lead-silver-copper deposits ever discovered in Nevada has just been opened up. Mr. Beeler says his samples of twenty-two feet at one place average over $44 clear across this width, and that a sample of two feet at another place carried $120.15 per ton.

AMUSEMENTS

BERT LYTELL & "BULL" MONTANA AT BUTLER.

The most we see of Bert Lytell, the more we are convinced that this handsome star's popularity is well founded. "Easy to Make Money," the comedy drama in which he will appear today, is by far the best vehicle in which this popular star has ever appeared. The story has to do with an adventurous young man who has a weakness for speed and recklessness. Betting is a hobby with him, and the idea of love never enters his head. But his dad steps in and tries to check his downward slide. Here is where Jimmy, the afore-said young man, conceives the idea of capitalizing his tricky way of getting into jail. Between breaking speed laws and disturbing the peace he has spent a good deal of time in the cooler and he decides to make some easy money out of his next visit before the judge. He makes a bet with dad that he will not be arrested more than once during the year. The bet is a small fortune. Then he goes out and gets himself arrested and sentenced to a year to figure the fortune. It is the way he goes about it, the manner in which he accomplishes his tricks, that makes this a picture you are sure to enjoy. "Bull" Montana also appears in the picture. And added to the feature will be a two-act "The V" comedy, entitled "Harem and Hokus." Tomorrow, Dorothy Gish in "The Hope Chest," and the fourth episode of "Round and Round," which is pronounced by all the fans as "the best one yet."

Monday a Paramount-Ariana special, "For Better, For Worse," a Cecil B. DeMille production, and there are no better.

LONE MOUNTAIN CUTS BIG VEIN

Hugh Leonard, superintendent of the Lone Mountain Divide Mining company, reports that his forces cut the big vein in a tunnel about 400 feet north of the main shaft. This tunnel was run from the north side of the hill, and after penetrating 130 feet cut the vein at a depth of 200 feet from the surface. The pay streak ran $38 to $129 for eight inches while the remaining three feet is good milling ore. The company is now completing the head-frames, installation of which began last week. Winter quarters for the men have been completed and the shaft is going down at an angle of 45 degrees with expectation of cutting the main ledge at eighty feet. The company has not been boasting much of its accomplishments but the fact that last month the shipments of high-grade to the MacNamara mill aggregated 100 tons demonstrates that development is going forward on a profitable basis.
